As we move through these 40 Days of Prayer together isn't it exciting to know we all are reading the same passages, we all are allowing God to challenge us in the same areas. As we concluded week one, we were challenged to compare our hearts to the soils Jesus referred to in the "Parable of the Sower". Though my heart is not what I want it to be, the good news is that like soil it can be cultivated. That is the point God wants us to get - "He is still doing a work in us!" As the farmer does not just walk thru his fields doing random work, but goes out with intentionality, so are we to be intentional regarding spiritual growth in our hearts. As we come into His presence both in personal times of worship and as we gather as His church for Worship - Let us be intentional in allowing God to have His Way in our Hearts. Mold us, Shape us Lord, so we may be used by you to reap the Harvest!
